

ACADEMY OF MARTIAL ARTS & IOGKF INDIA

Gasshuku 2018

With Guest Instructor

Sensei Tetsuji Nakamura

Chief Instructor World, IOGKF

Tetsuji Nakamura was born in 1965, in Osaka, Japan. He trained in Judo for six years achieving the rank of 2nd Degree Black Belt.

He started karate training at the age of 15 in the Japanese Goju style, and after graduating from university in 1989, moved to Okinawa to train under Sensei Aragaki Shuichi (student of founder Sensei Miyagi Chojun). Through Sensei Aragaki, he was introduced to Sensei Morio Higaonna and joined the Higaonna Dojo and the IOGKF. He was invited by Sensei Higaonna to the USA to become an assistant instructor at the IOGKF world headquarters.

Sensei Nakamura's excellent rapport with instructors and students all across the globe, coupled with his rapidly growing International following and his understanding and respect for preserving traditional Goju-ryu; saw Sensei Higaonna appoint him as IOGKF World Chief Instructor in 2012.

IOGKF India & Sensei Pervez Mistry invite Sensei Tetsuji Nakamura to impart his knowledge and technique not only to IOGKF India members but to all genuine Karate-kas interested in traditional and hard training.
